Miss Sadie K. Bass Is New Demonstrator

Will Arrive In Canyon Today To Start Work July 1st

Miss Sadie Kate Bass, who has had wide experience in demonstration work, has accepted the position of Home Demonstration Agent for Randall County and will arrive in Canyon today in order to take up her duties on July 1st. The office of Home Demonstrator was created Monday, June 13, by the Commissioners Court for a trial period of six months. Miss Bass will have offices in the court house.

Miss Bass is a native of Texas, was reared on a farm, and has a B. S. degree in home economics from the North Texas State Teachers College at Denton, Texas. She has taught both in rural and city schools and has worked with the public in various ways.

She is highly recommended by Miss Minnie Mae Grubbs, District Home Demonstration Agent of College Station who says of her: "I am sure that Miss Bass will get the rural women and girls organized and begin their canning work just as soon as she can after she reaches the county. I expect to visit her soon after she reaches the county to help her get acquainted with the people and get the organization started. With Miss Bass as home demonstration agent, I am looking forward with much pleasure and interest to the work in Randall county."

Miss Grubbs was in Canyon at the time the office was created and spoke to the commissioners and the rural women who attended about the work of a demonstration agent. She expressed the belief at that time that a six months' trial during the canning season would convince the citizens of the county that the work of a home demonstration agent should be continued.

WILL FURNISH GAS, STOVE FOR CANNING

Earl Robbins, local agent for the West Texas Gas Company, makes the offer of free gas and the free use of a gas stove at the office of his company for any organization which wishes to can vegetables to be used for distribution to the poor of the county during the coming winter.

Mr. Robbins states that organizations in many towns have taken advantage of the offer of free stove and gas to can vegetables for the coming winter.

Highway Buckles In Pavement To Be Eliminated

Buckles in the concrete pavement on the Canyon-Amarillo highway are to be eliminated soon according to announcement made last week by officials of the Amarillo district of the State Highway Department. Work started Tuesday on the strip of pavement east of Panhandle and repairs are to be made on the Canyon-Amarillo road when that strip is completed. All buckled highways in the Panhandle will be repaired, said J. W. Van London, district engineer in charge of construction.

B. C. Rogers, assistant state engineer in maintenance work, will be in charge of the work. The process by which the "waves" in the pavement are to be removed is a new one but is considered an adequate method. The strips of paving where buckling has occurred will be raised under hydraulic pressure and a special mixture of loam and element designed to counteract the waves will be forced under them.

The mixture is forced under the slabs from a "mud pressure machine" and through holes bored in the pavement at 6-foot intervals. Tests have revealed that the buckling occurs only in clay beds where long intervals of heavy rainfall result in consistent expansion and contraction of the roadbed, forcing the slabs outward at the joints. The loam-cement mixture will counteract the variation of the roadbed.

Highway engineers have not estimated the mileage of the total strips of buckled concrete in the region. The work will be done at state expense at a cost of 10 cents per square yard, or little over $1000 per mile.

Oneal Porter Dies Thursday In Amarillo

Miss Oneal Porter, 18 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Porter of this city, died this morning at 2 o'clock at the West Texas Hospital in Amarillo, following an operation performed Tuesday morning at 7:30.

Miss Porter was born in Silverton, Texas, November 11, 1913, and had lived in Canyon nine years. She was a graduate of the Canyon High School and had done one year's work at the West Texas State Teachers College.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4:30 at the Church of Christ with the Rev. John O'Dowd in charge. Interment will be in Dreamland Cemetery.

Miss Porter is survived by her parents, two sisters, Gailen and Betty Lou, a brother, Wayne, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Porter of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crow of Silverton. Out-of-town relatives present at the funeral will include Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Patton of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Fry of El Paso, J. R. Porter of Claude, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Head, and Mrs. L. B. Hancock, both of Tucumcari, and others.

TODAY'S ONE-MINUTE SERMON

The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.—Psalm x, 4.

Judge Henry Bishop Quits Race Against Jones for Congress

Judge Henry S. Bishop has announced his withdrawal from the race for Congress, leaving Marvin Jones without an opponent from the 18th district. Judge Bishop states that court business makes it impossible for him to continue the campaign.

Mr. Jones writes from Washington that owing to pressing measures in Congress at this time he will be unable to reach his district until congress has adjourned. As chairman of the committee on Agriculture, Mr. Jones has held one of the most powerful positions in congress, and was responsible for the loans from the government which have been made to the farmers for this year's crops. His friends are glad that he will again be elected without opposition.

McCLURE OUT OF RACE

S. B. McCLURE

Announcing that business affairs would make it impossible for him to continue as a candidate for Sheriff and Tax Collector, S. B. McClure withdrew from the race Saturday. Mr. McClure stated that he wished to thank his many friends for their encouragement and support during the campaign, but believes that he cannot afford to continue in the race for business reasons.

C. R. Holland is Candidate Office Co. Commissioner

C. R. Holland has authorized the announcement of his candidacy for the office of County Commissioner, precinct No. 1. He states that he has lived in the Panhandle for 33 years, and in Randall county for 18 years.

Mr. Holland states that in asking for the support of the voters at the polls, he submits the following as some of the issues which now confronts the public; Reduction of public expenditures in the county; Economy in all county funds; Tax reduction; Equalization of tax burdens. He states that if elected he will devote all of his efforts to the accomplishments of these measures.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Laseter were Amarillo visitors Sunday.

First Load of Wheat Comes to Market Tuesday

The first load of wheat for the harvest season was brought to Canyon Tuesday by A. J. Casey, who lives 2 miles south of Canyon on the Gillham farm.

The wheat was bought by the Neff Elevator for 30 cents per bushel, which was a premium of 3 cents. The wheat is making 12 bushels to the acre, and the test was 58.

COUNTY-WIDE RALLY TO BE HELD JULY 9

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO SPONSOR EVENT.

Candidates or Their Representatives Will Be Introduced and Will Speak Briefly.

The Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a big County-wide political rally for all county and district candidates on the night of Saturday, July 9, was the announcement made from the Chamber of Commerce offices Wednesday morning.

This rally is expected to attract citizens from all parts of the county. All district and county officials will be invited to be present and all Panhandle headquarters of state candidates will be notified of the rally and requested to send representatives. There will be no long speeches. All candidates or their representatives will be introduced and allowed time to give a brief discussion of the issues involved in their respective races, if they care to do so.

The exact meeting place for the rally and the hour when it will be held has not yet been decided upon. However details of the meeting will be worked out before next week and the announcement made before next Saturday.

AMERICAN LEGION TO BROADCAST SUNDAY

The American Legion and the Auxiliary will present a program over radio station K G R S in Amarillo Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 2 o'clock. Musical selections and songs will be given by local people and several other interesting numbers are being planned.

HAS NO OPPOSITION

MARVIN JONES

Congressman from the 18th district, who will have no opponent for re-election since the withdrawal of Judge Henry S. Bishop.

Kentuckian Here to Study Manual Arts

D. O. Caywood of Central City, Kentucky, is an out of state student of the West Texas State Teachers College who came to Canyon for special work in Manual Training, because it was the only college in the United States where he could get the three courses he needed.

Caywood wanted information on equipment, methods and problems of an effective manual training department.

Golden Green and Porter Pierce visited in Amarillo Sunday.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, on July 4th, 1776, this country became an independent self-sustaining Republic, and

WHEREAS, the Nation has experienced sound and substantial growth materially while fostering democracy and freedom, enlightenment and faith in the Almighty, and

WHEREAS, on the 156th anniversary of the Declaration, the Country is realizing benefit in untold measure from those first Principles which went into the Declaration of Independence.

THEREFORE, be it ordered that all business houses of Canyon, who can, without violating their pledge to public service, remain closed on this day, and all citizens enjoying in their own right the blessings of this national independence, celebrate this Anniversary of our Country.

Given under my hand and seal this, the 30th day of June, A. D., Nineteen hundred and thirty-two.

Absentee Voting Starts July 3rd

Absentee Votes Good Up To July 20th in The Primary

Absentee voting for the July primary may start on July 3rd, stated Mrs. Berl Edwards Mayfield, county clerk, yesterday. Absentee votes must be cast at the clerk's office, and will be delivered to the election officials on the 23rd of July.

It is necessary to bring or send to the clerk's office a poll tax receipt in order to cast a vote in the primary. Those who have lost their receipt may make an affidavit to that effect.

The election supplies are ready for the July primary, and the ballots will be printed by the end of this week by The News. It is believed that fully 2300 votes will be cast in the primary this year, the largest number that has ever been cast in a primary election.

Plans for Museum Inspected Tuesday

DO NOT PARK ON 4th AVENUE SUNDAYS

City officials have asked citizens attending church not to park on Fourth Avenue during the church services. The traffic on Fourth Avenue is very heavy on Sunday. The street is usually crowded with cars, and there is danger to life and autos if cars are parked on both sides of the street, especially at the Baptist and Methodist churches.

Cash Raising Campaign Is Being Pushed for July 1st

Plans for the Museum building of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society were inspected Tuesday in Amarillo by L. F. Sheffy, R. A. Terrill, Miss Malone, Miss Hill, Clyde W. Warwick, of Canyon, Horace M. Russell and Mrs. W. T. Coble of Amarillo, who met with Rittenberry and Carder, the architects. President T. D. Hobart of Pampa, J. D. Hamlin of Farwell, Judge H. E. Hoover of Canadian and W. H. Patrick of Clarendon will be in Amarillo sometime this week to finally pass upon the plans.

The architects state that they will be rushed to complete the plans in time for the letting of the contract by the middle of August, as is now contemplated. However, they are working toward that end, in order that the building may be completed by the time of the annual meeting of the Society in April.

L. F. Sheffy is calling upon all who have subscribed to the Museum fund to pay their donations by July 1st. He hopes to have $25,000 in the banks by that time to absolutely insure that the state funds of $25,000 will be matched by the citizens of the Plains. This fund must be turned over to the State Board of Control before any definite work may be started on the building.

Many workmen have expressed the desire to donate labor toward the construction of the Museum, and in letting the contract such donations will be accepted as cash. It is planned that every person who wishes to donate labor or material toward the building will receive the same credit in the construction of the building as those who give cash.

Geo. W. Armstrong Spoke Monday a. m. Candidate Governor

Judge George W. Armstrong, candidate for Governor, spoke at the court house Monday morning to a number of voters. He arrived at 9:30, having been scheduled for 11:00 o'clock, and on account of the bad roads decided to speak earlier than dated. He was introduced by Clyde W. Warwick.

Mr. Armstrong discussed only three of the planks of his platform, the needs for a state currency, the need of a moratorium on real estate loans and bonds, and the need of a new constitution. In closing he expressed opposition to the referendum on prohibition.

In discussing the currency, he stated that he had no faith in either the republican or democratic parties so far as money is concerned. He is the author of a book on state currency, and believes that his principles are sound.

As to the moratorium, he stated that the taxpayers cannot meet their debts with the dollar value at half the value when the bonds and loans were made. He believed that the bond and mortgage holders should be forced to wait until conditions were better.

The constitution should be revised every 20 years, stated Mr. Armstrong. The constitution of Texas, written in 1878, has been far outgrown by the state. He believes that the ad valorum tax should be abolished, and the state government should be supported by high inheritance tax. Eighteen states now use this method. The widow should be left a sufficient sum to support her during her lifetime, but Mr. Armstrong would leave little for the children of the deceased as wealth would more likely injure than help them.

Members Of English Dept. Giving Talks

The English department of the College is giving a series of short lectures on Modern Literature. These lectures are given at 9:30 on Wednesday and Friday mornings and continue for one-half hour.

The lecture tomorrow will be on Robert Frost and will be given by Miss Mattie Swayne. Yesterday Miss M. Moss Richardson discussed Edwin Arlington Robinson.

Wednesday, July 6, Dr. F. M. Darnall will give the lecture which deals with Carl Sandburg.

These lectures are open to any who wish to attend them, and town people who are interested in modern literary expression are invited to attend. Room 118, in the east end of the Administration Building is used for the lectures

Rotary Club Will Start Year With Group New Officers

The gavel as president of the Canyon Rotary Club was surrendered Tuesday by Clyde W. Warwick to Oscar Gano, who was recently elected president for the coming year. Other officers will be introduced next Tuesday when reports will be made by the retiring officers.

The program Tuesday was in charge of the program committee, Bob Jarrett, chairman. Harris M. Cook talked upon the impressions he had received of Rotary from the outside, before becoming a member.

Rotary is an institution of Social Service, stated Mr. Cook. No matter what enterprises are underway for community building, Rotary always takes a part. The bringing of men from all vocations and professions together creates friendship and understanding. Through dropping all formalities, men become better acquainted.

Rotary provides three things, Knowledge, through the promotion and study of activities; Technique, through the methods set up of accomplishing these activities; Skill, through the habit and attitude of these accomplishments.

Visitors of the club Tuesday were Carl Perriman, and Roy Wilson of Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. M. L. Hooker of Wichita Falls is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Fry. She was accompanied by her two daughters, Mrs. O. O. Gilbert and children and Mrs. F. A. Townes.

Rainfall for June Totals 7.23 Inches

2.65 Inches are Added to Moisture Thursday to Saturday

June's rainfall set a new record for Randall county. While the total of 7.23 inches was exceeded by the rainfall of June in the years 1885 and 1921, this year's record is about double the total moisture of any June since the weather bureau was established in 1880.

The rainfall for the month was increased 2.65 inches over the week end by .90 of an inch Thursday, 1.15 inches Friday and .60 of an inch Saturday.

Wheat harvest has been held up the past week by the heavy rains, but with the prevailing dry weather since Sunday the fields are drying fast and combines are at work all over the county this week.

Weeds are growing rapidly, and the farmers will be kept busy from now on until harvest is completed, trying to cut the wheat before the weeds get too high, and at the same time trying to clean their row crops of the heavy growth of weeds started by the heavy rains.

The final wind-up of the money raising campaign for the $25,000 building fund of the Panhandle-Plains-Historical Society is on, and Prof. L. F. Sheffy hopes to have all of this money in the banks by July 1st. No definite action may be taken toward the construction of the Museum until all of the money has been deposited to the credit of the Board of Control. Cash is the thing that is absolutely necessary to get the building underway. Many Canyon people have responded most generously to the fund; some were unable to make donations, much to their regret; there are others who have not paid anything, perhaps have not been solicited to make a donation. The necessary step now is for every one who can possibly do so to get some money together and make a donation to Mr. Sheffy, who has had the responsibility of the money raising campaign, and who has made a notable success of the undertaking. There is no danger of over-subscribing the fund, as money will be needed for furniture and fixtures. As The News sees it, the Museum is the biggest thing that has been undertaken for the benefit of this section in a long time. Its erection will put in Canyon a building which will draw the attention of thousands of people who have not had an active interest in Canyon and the College. The real influence of the Museum cannot be appreciated until a person gets outside the boundary of Canyon and hears the favorable comments which are being made about the Museum and those who are doing so much for its construction. Let every citizen get under the load of the building fund, in order that the building may be assured, as it is absolutely necessary to raise the $25,000 in cash in order to secure a like amount from the state treasury.

Now comes the story that the big oil companies are pocketing a profit of 1 cent per gallon on their gasoline and 4 cents per gallon on oil, which was imposed as a government tax on June 21st. Under the terms of the law all gasoline and oil on hand, or which had been purchased, was exempted from the tax. The big companies stepped out and bought a supply for several months, raised the price and pocketed the amount chargeable for the tax. All of which shows how easy it is for errors to creep into legislation, which may be taken advantage of by those who choose to do so. Congress hoped to treat everyone fairly in the passage of the tax bill, but under the terms, allowed to go tax free all gasoline and oil which was purchased, even though it was not delivered.

George W. Armstrong, candidate for Governor of Texas, spoke here Monday morning, advocating things which have not been presented before to the voters. His plan for a state currency is understood by few people, therefore, is not generally discussed, and is thought by many to be impossible. He does strike one note which meets with general appeal, and that is to declare a moratorium upon the bond and interest payments of the state. Bonds and interest take about 43 percent of the total local taxes. Local taxes cannot be reduced so long as these bonds and their interest must be met annually. It would be a popular thing to do under existing conditions to postpone bond and interest payments until conditions are better, and the taxpayers have more money.

Prospects for a national park in the Palo Duro increased very materially with the visit of the park commissioner. The commissioner stated that he did not realize the greatness and beauty of the Palo Duro until this visit, and would return for a more thorough investigation. The opening of the small park by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce has done more to put the Palo Duro before the people than any movement ever made, and if the national government finally takes over the Palo Duro for a national project it will have been accomplished by the movement taken by the local people in making possible a close-up view from the park started by the Chamber of Commerce.

The Home Demonstration Agent for Randall county will arrive today, and will be ready to meet the women of the county tomorrow. The Commissioners Court has employed the new agent for six months, with a view of allowing the women of the county an opportunity to see the benefits of this office. If the women are pleased with the results accomplished during the coming six months, most surely the office will be continued. Every woman in Randall county shoud strive to meet the new agent as soon as possible, and get a line-up of the program for the coming six months.

The storms and rains of Northwest Texas this month have been the most destructive that this country has experienced in many years. Much of the wheat has been destroyed by the hard hail storms, and heavy rains. The farmers are greatly discouraged at the prospects of the harvest this year, which has been held up for so long by the continued rains. The quality of the wheat has been greatly reduced by the rains, and the fact that the weeds are growing so rapidly.

All of these rains mean a big crop of weeds. The beauty of the town demands that the weeds be cut, and the hay fever patients will call blessed those who keep down their crop of weeds.

No matter who the democratic nominee for president may be, he will be no wetter than the republican party this year, which is hiding behind a cork screw.

The best thing about the gangsters now is that they are killing off each other in large numbers.

The republicans didn't boast a whole lot about the wonderful Hoover prosperity, nor brag about the empty dinner pail.

The republican prohibition plank is as straight as a cork screw, and smells about the same.

Southwest Plainsman (Amarillo): Voters of the 123rd District are glad to have the opportunity of returning Clyde W. Warwick, of Canyon, to the Texas legislature where he has served the people well, the past four years. Mr. Warwick's record shows that he anticipated the present demand for reducing governmental expenses and as Chairman of the Committee on Contingent Expenses during the last session of the legislature, inaugurated economies never before practiced by the House. His selection to head this important committee was a most happy one for certainly a man who has earned "by the sweat of his brow," every dollar he has ever had, knows the full value of those dollars. Being a thoroughly conscientious man, he feels it as much his duty to save the public funds as he has, in private life, felt it necessary to cut his own expenses wherever possible. Having proved himself a capable business man by conducting a successful business which his own good judgment has enabled him to pay for, he is exactly the sort of a man that the people want in public office. By reason of economies put in operation by Mr. Warwick, the expenses of the 42nd legislature were cut to nearly half those of either of the two preceding sessions and his experience will enable him to effect still further economies in the administration of the business of the House. As a member of the Appropriations Committee, during the last session, Mr. Warwick spent six months studying the state's business on a committee where one gets the best possible insight into it. It is the Appropriations Committee that has the job of sifting the hundreds of demands made upon the State treasury in bills presented at each legislative session, determining their value and importance and reporting to the House such as it believes to be worthy and helpful. Mr. Warwick also served on a number of other committees through which he learned the real needs of Texas in a legislative way. Texas is such a big state that the people in one extremity know little of what the citizens in the opposite extremity may need but in this particular, legislative committee hearings and discussions are most informative. Our legislator also favors a cut in salaries and a reduction in the number of members in the House both of which measures are in accord with the taxpayers' desire for economy. Every voter knows to his sorrow how easy it has been for our lawmaking bodies to create new bureaus and commissions—and how very hard it seems to be to get rid of them. Not only does it take a thorough knowledge of the facts in each case but it takes courage for a member of the legislature to propose the abolition of any of these tax-eating bureaus. Never before have we so sorely needed businessmen—honest, hard-working, courageous and unselfish businessmen—in the administration of our governmental affairs and Representative Warwick is just that sort.

HIGHLY ENTERTAINING.

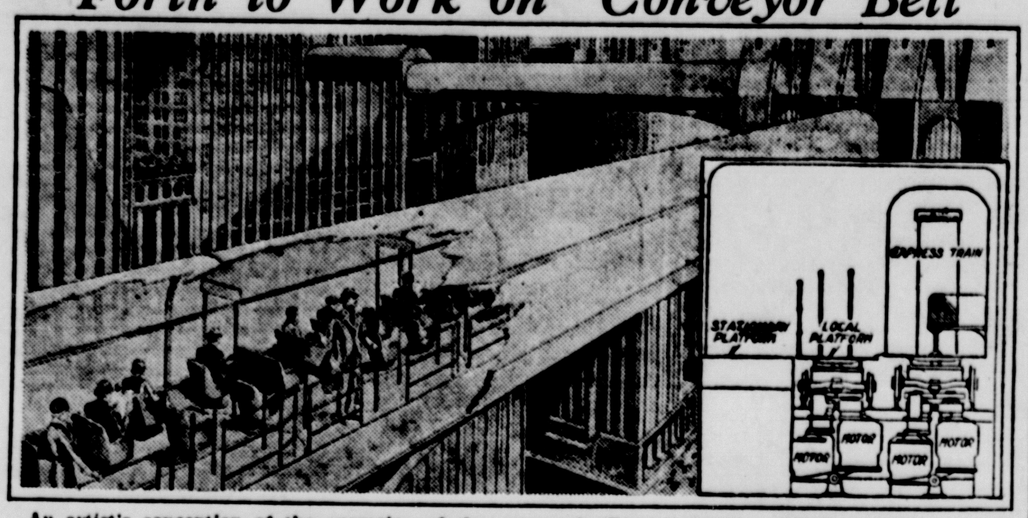
City Dwellers May Soon Go Back And Forth to Work on "Conveyor Belt"



An artist's conception of the operation of the proposed "Biway" system, which consists of two parallel "conveyor" belts, one an express, containing upholstered seats, and the other a local, slowing and stopping at all stations, is shown above. This system may be used either through subways or overhead tubes. Inset is a cross-section view showing how the "Biway" operates.

TRANSPORTATION of human beings through subways or overhead tubes on a sort of conveyor belt may be the next step in the evolution of intracity transit systems, and the solution of congestion problems which have vexed metropolitan engineers since the day of the horse car.

This proposed system, called the "Biway," consists of two parallel belts, one "express," carrying upholstered seats in an endless stream, and one, "local," without seats. Bordering the "local" belt at intervals are stationary platforms for passengers entering or leaving the belts. While the "express" belt travels continuously at a speed of 17 miles an hour, the local belt slows down and stops at all stations to pick up passengers, then is accelerated to the same speed as the "express" belt, when gates separating the belts open.

To enter this conveyance, passengers step directly from the stationary platform to the "local" belt and then, immediately, to the "express" belt. When they approach their stations, they move back to the "local" for the stop.

The Biway system, if found practical and installed, should prove a great step forward in solving the problem of traffic congestion, which engineering experts have repeatedly sought to combat by construction of subways and elevated railways.

DEVELOPMENT of interurban transportation has a history running back more than a century. In 1832, horse railways were in operation in cities throughout the United States. The year 1863 marked the first departure from this system, when London constructed the first urban rapid transit line in the world, an underground steam railroad. Then, in 1868, New York took the lead with the first elevated railroad. Shortly afterward, San Francisco built the first cable surface road, to be headed by Berlin in 1881 with the first electric operation.

The first electric street railway in the United States was operated in Richmond, Va., in 1888, 41 years ago, and the first rapid transit subway express line was installed in New York in 1904.

According to an American consulting engineer and transportation specialist, the rapid transit lines as presently mapped out produce all kinds of congestion—population, housing, business and manufacturing.

The reason, he points out, is that population follows rapid transit lines, which have committed the error of expanding existing lines, threading already congested districts, instead of breaking up congestion by installing lines in districts which show promise of future development.

As a result, this specialist claims, the mass of population along the rapid transit lines has concentrated the city's land valuation within the same limited area, in a great degree. In New York, for instance, an assessed valuation amounting to 91 per cent of the total land value of the entire city is concentrated within an area of only about 100 square miles. The other 9 per cent is in the remaining 200 square miles of city area.

The remedy for this condition, and one which is receiving the attention of American cities in general, is the distribution of transit lines. In other words, since rapid transit induces the flow of population to the sections in which it is provided, the most effective thing to do is to extend the new lines into the wide open spaces and let the people follow them.

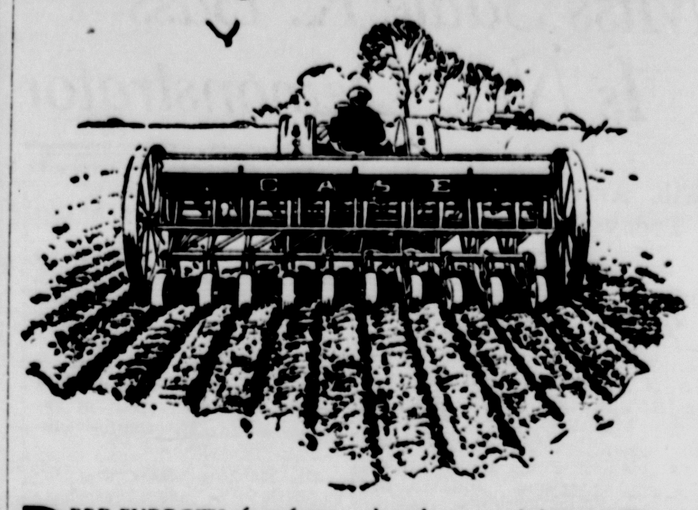
Your Grain From Winter Killing—Soil Blowing—Scarcity of Moisture



DEEP FURROWS, free from air spaces — 12 to 14 inches apart—save many a loss of profit where winter wheat and other grains are subject to injury from winter killing, soil blowing or dry spells.

That's exactly the reason for the increasing popularity of the CASE Deep-Furrow Grain Drill. Its large disks are set at an angle to penetrate deeply. Seed is deposited evenly over a wider space in the bottom of the furrow.

Soil blowing is reduced to a minimum. Rapid germination results — because the soil is moist. Snow is held in the furrows. Root damage is minimized—because the soil, in the drilled rows, does not crack as does ordinary drilling.

If you want quicker, more uniform germination—fewer hazards for fall seeding in semi-arid sections, come in today and let us show you this Case Deep-Furrow Drill. Our store is headquarters for modern farm implements.

News in Canyon 25 Years Ago

(From the files of the Canyon City News, June 27, 1907)

The News is a half day late this week on account of the editor going to the Northwest Texas Press Association meeting held at Plainview Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. This meeting was a success from every viewpoint and The News will speak further of it next week. We go to Clarendon next year.

Mrs. T. C. Thompson and children accompanied T. C. to Amarillo Monday in an auto.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, visited their brother, A. F. Hamilton, left for their home, Rotan, Saturday morning. Dr. Ingham went with them, intending to go on as far as Floydada.

Fishing Party Wrecked

One fishing party came to grief Saturday. It was composed of Major Smith, Geo. Reynolds, J. F. Hood and two small boys, one Oscar Smith's and the other S. E. Roberts'. They had one horse to a delivery wagon and Major Smith was driving. When near the S. B. Lofton place going toward the creek the horse scared, Geo. Reynolds and J. F. Hood jumping out, the others remaining in. Damages: Geo. Reynolds a broken collar bone and some other minor hurts and J. F. Hood, a broken bone in one leg below the knee. Both getting along nicely but laid up for the balance of this week anyway. The Major, the two boys, the horse and the wagon came out all right, save a little shaking up. There are some other sidelights on this fishing party wreck. Call on Lee Vansant for further particulars.

Sterling Coffee is working over his residence. Two more rooms, two extra cottage windows in the old part and another porch for this time.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS.
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Randall County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon J. J. Donovan, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Randall County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Canyon, Texas, on the first Monday in August, A. D. 1932, the same being the 1st day of August, A. D. 1932, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 22nd day of June A. D. 1932, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 1340, wherein Florence Donovan is Plaintiff, and J. J. Donovan is Defendant, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

Plaintiff sues for divorce, alleging that she has been for a period of more than twelve months prior to the filing of this petition an actual bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas, and has resided in Randall County, Texas, for more than six months next preceding the filing of this petition; that plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married on or about September 1, 1914, and continued to live together as husband and wife until about May 1st, 1916; that plaintiff during said time treated her husband with kindness and forebearance; that on or about May 1, 1916, defendant left and abandoned plaintiff and has never returned but has permanently abandoned her for more than fifteen consecutive years. Plaintiff alleges that defendant was guilty of excesses, cruel treatment, and outrages toward her, such as to render their living together insupportable; that shortly before he left plaintiff he slapped her and her two minor children to plaintiff's great grief and humiliation. Plaintiff alleges under oath that the residence of defendant is unknown to her and prays for citation by publication.

Herein fail not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Canyon, Texas, on this 22nd day of June, A. D. 1932.

RAIL TRANSPORTATION IS EFFICIENT AND ECONOMICAL

● THE RAILROAD is the most efficient and the most economical transportation agency the human mind has ever devised.

The ability of commercial trucks to operate with various charges for their services has been because they are not required to carry all kinds and classes of freight. The truck can choose its freight and is privileged to reject that which it cannot handle, either because it is not equipped for such heavy service or the rates are too low to be profitable. The railroad CANNOT DISCRIMINATE but must accept all freight offered it.

In 1930 the shippers of Texas paid the railroads $225,223,142 in freight charges. If the same volume and character of traffic had been carried by trucks it would have cost the shippers, according to the best available data on trucking costs, $900,000,000, or four times as much.

What will be the effect on the shippers of Texas if only the traffic which the trucks cannot handle is left to the railroads? If traffic paying the higher rate is taken from the railroads by the trucks, it will be necessary for the rail carriers to increase their rates on the low grade traffic or go out of business. The total transportation bill will be greatly increased.

The railroad rate structure is a composite designed for the purpose of enabling the free movement of ALL ARTICLES OF COMMERCE, making it possible to bring even the cheapest commodities into general use and distribution. Were it not for the low rates made available by the railroads on many low grade commodities and raw materials, their distribution and use would be impossible and all commerce and industry would be seriously affected.

● THE RAILROADS CANNOT SUBSIST ON LOW GRADE TRAFFIC ALONE.

MISS CLARA SANDERS WEDS CALIFORNIAN

At a quiet ceremony Saturday afternoon, June 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Spain, San Juan Road, California, the Rev. Mr. Bodine of the Corralitos Free Methodist church united in marriage Miss Clara Sanders of Canyon and Mr. Eldon Spain of Corralitos, Calif. The single ring ceremony was used with members of the immediate families and a few friends present.

The couple was attended by Miss Pauline Mackaline and Mr. Morley Bradey.

The bride was lovely in a frock of apricot Rochnari crepe trimmed in silver. Miss Mackaline wore yellow chiffon trimmed in chiffon velvet of the same shade.

Mrs. Spain is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sanders of this city. She has lived in Canyon a number of years and receved her education at the Canyon High School where she was active in student affairs.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Spain of Corralitos, California.

Following a short honeymoon trip the couple will be at home to their many friends in Corralitos.

Three Brave Men Singing

(By Peggy Caldwell)

Three brave men singing
A song through the years;
Three brave men bringing
Courage for fears.
One is an old man, feeble and gray;
One is a strong man, standing to pray;
The third is a dream-lad, a shadow to see,
Singing his song with a heart that is free.
Yesterday, they called the old one,
Young To-day, his tall son,
And To-morrow, the dream-youth,
Eyes aflame with thoughts of Truth.

Three brave men singing
Through storm and blast;
Three brave men becoming
One brave man at last.

Student Tours of Southwest Planned For Summer Jaunts

Trips are being arranged by Mrs. Geraldine Green and Mrs. T. V. Reeves for students to the U. S. Helium Plant in Amarillo, the Carbon Black plants at Pampa, Carlsbad Caverns, Santa Fe, Colorado Springs, and other interesting points in the Southwest.

Definite announcements have not yet been made other than a visit to Carlsbad Cavern on July 4. B. F. Mathews will have charge of transportation. Chaperones will accompany the group.

Plans are being formulated for a trip to Taos, N. M., between terms.

L. N. George Says—

A close checkup shows that two hundred fifty students are here this summer as a direct result of the ex-student work during the past year or so. By continued concerted action this can be doubled in another year.

Instead of Tuesday of this week, Saturday has been chosen as County Club Day. At chapel, 9:30 a. m. fifty-three counties and two states will form themselves into clubs. New Mexico and Oklahoma will each have a club. Students from a distance are asked to join the nearest club to them.

These clubs are being organized for the following purposes: First, to promote friendship and loyalty toward each other, and W. T. S. T. C. Second, to do our bit in any way that we can to improve the school conditions in our territory. And third, to have the machinery already set up in the form of an organization by which we can get the wishes of the teachers in our section before the school powers of the state in case it is advisable in the near future.

The presidents and secretaries of these clubs will be called together and the dates of roundups for this winter scheduled as far as possible.

We are banking upon every student who is here this summer to send a good high school graduate back to W. T. from the place in which he teaches this winter. The only way to have friends is to be one. If you really like to render service and be friendly, there never was a happier time in which to live and work than right now. Service to our fellowman has more value now than it has ever had in our lifetime. Come out Saturday morning and let's get acquainted.

New W. T. Club Is Organized At Cousins Hall Wednesday Afternoon

Yesterday afternoon at Cousins Hall a new club came into existence when the married women students of the college and the wives of married men who are students and the mothers of students who do not regularly live in Canyon met and organized the W. T. Dames.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Frank R. Phillips, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. A. B. Barnett, Mrs. R. P. Jarrett, Mrs. Agnes Collins Smith, and Mrs. F. E. Savage.

Mrs. Murray presided at the registration desk where about sixty women registered.

In a brief business session, Mrs. Howard Batchelder was elected president, Mrs. C. A. Murray, vice president, and Mrs. Myrtle Thornton, secretary and treasurer.

The name Dames was chosen for the new organization because it has been used in many other colleges for similar clubs. The purpose of the organization is to promote good fellowship and pleasant social life for wives and mothers and married women students who are not interested in all the social activities of the average college boy and girl. It is believed that a better understanding of the college and its purposes and many delightful friendships will result from the club.

It was decided to hold a meeting once each two weeks during the remainder of the summer session, with the probability that meetings will not be oftener than once a month during the regular session. The next meeting will be held at Randall Hall.

MR. AND MRS. CARRUTH ENTERTAIN WEDNESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Irby Carruth were hosts at an enjoyable affair Wednesday evening when they honored Mr. and Mrs. Sam Humphreys of Fort Worth and Mrs. Thos. A. Shriver of Nashville, Tennessee, with a picnic supper at the Canyon Country Club.

The menu consisted of fried chicken, pimento cheese sandwiches, tomatoes, deviled eggs, pickles, olives, potato salad, nut pie with whipped cream, and iced punch. Following the supper, the group played bridge in the club house for the remainder of the evening.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys, and Mrs. Shriver, guests of honor; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Foster, Mrs. W. C. Black, Mrs. Bob Neblett, Miss Dora Miller, Miss Arless O'Keefe of Panhandle, and Carl Perriman of Snyder.

Miss Fair Wiggins Dies At Home In Chicago, June 17

Miss Fair Wiggins, formerly of this city, but lately of Chicago, Illinois, passed away there June 17, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Columbia C. Havens, 1247 Arthur Avenue. Her body was taken to Independence, Missouri, for the funeral and burial.

For a period of fifteen years Miss Wiggins was a music teacher here, instructing a large class in piano and orchestration. At one time she was the director of a band. She was deeply interested in music and its influence in the community, and she was a great friend to young people. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiggins, and was born at Moscow, Idaho, March 2, 1887.

Miss Wiggins has, for the past ten years, been a student and teacher in the Chicago Sherwood School of Music from which on June 18, of last year, she obtained her masters degree in music. She taught in that school until ill health compelled her to relinquish her classes in March of this year. During the closing eight weeks of her life she was nursed by her sister, Miss Loretti Wiggins.

Surviving her are her aged and invalid mother, Mrs. C. I. Wiggins, of Independence; three sisters, Mrs. Pearl W. Moriarty, also of Independence; Miss Loretti Wiggins, of Tulsa, and Mrs. Columbia C. Havens, of Chicago; several other relatives, and many friends.

CANYON CITY CLUB NEWS

Members of the Club participated in a novel tournament last Sunday. All players were chosen into sides by two captains. One contest was played by having four players representing the Reds and four the Whites, each player having to play with a single club and no other, and in rotation as the strokes came.

A driver, mashie, niblick and putter were the clubs used. It so happened that there were more shots made from the tee with a putter than with the driver, and more putts made with the niblick than with any oher club; a low score of 46 was made by one foursome.

The other contest allowed the player to use any and all clubs he deemed necessary but the opposition could make any kind of noise to "fuss" the player while making shots; low score of 36 was made under trying conditions.

A Club tournament will be held July 4th, at 2 o'clock. Every member is urged to compete as the tournament will be made as nearly equal as possible by those in charge. Poor players will be on a par with the good shooters when it comes to a division of the prizes. Those being unable to qualify Sunday may qualify sooner by notifying Bill Bryant or Oscar Gano of their intentions. Bryant and Gano will not say what kind of a tournament they are to have, but guarantee a good time for all who participate. An entrance fee of 25 cents will be assessed.

Dan Sanders of the Picnic Committee, says the indications are that there will be a large attendance at the Club Picnic July 4th. Basket dinner is to be served at 12 o'clock; baskets are to be on the table not later than 11:15 or 11:30, please. Each family is asked to bring food for their families for two meals, dinner and supper, including fried chicken, bread, pickles, tomatoes, salad, pie or cake, etc. Families may go together with others in preparing lunches if they desire. Coffee and lemonade will be furnished by the Club. Those unable to get to the Club for dinner or the golf tournament are urged to come for supper if possible to do so.

Keeper Shotwell promises the back nine will be playable Sunday and Monday unless rain stops the work being done on it.

Invest Your Printing Money in Canyon

Canyon has one of the best equipped Printing Plants in West Texas, capable of producing high class printing of all kinds.

The investment of printing money in a Canyon firm means the improvement of this printing plant, increasing its value and usefulness to the community.

Thousands of dollars are distributed annually in Canyon to employees and for local expenses. Each and every firm in Canyon is benefitted by this money. The money spent for any printing done in Canyon results in increased business for the firm who patronizes the home concern. All the money sent away from Canyon is gone forever. The business firm which sends it away will never have an opportunity to reap a profit from the dollars which have been taken from Canyon's trade channels, and placed to flow in the business channel of another town.

Printing prices in Canyon are as low as in any town, service and good workmanship considered.

NEW TYPE OF LYCEUM NUMBER COMES THURS.

MUSICAL PROGRAM TO BE RENDERED.

Talented Men's Chorus From Milwaukee to Give Variety Program.

The second lyceum number for the summer session will consist of a musical program rendered by the Milwaukee Teachers College chorus of Milwaukee, Wis., Thursday, June 30. The chorus is composed entirely of men.

"We have never had this type of entertainment before," stated Wallace R. Clark, chairman of the Lyceum Committee, in commenting on the coming of the Milwaukee Teachers Chorus. "The chorus is composed of talented men and a high class of music will be rendered in a variety program." It was impossible to secure the program.

The chorus is more in the form of a men's glee club than the ordinary chorus. The group, traveling by bus, is on a trans-continental tour to California.

Strain Fossil Attracts Notice Of Geologist

Bill Strain, senior in the college, recently received recognition by Dr. E. C. Case of the University of Michigan because of a major geological discovery of the fossil remains of a pre-historic annimal.

Mr. Strain's discovery was a portion of the jaw of the XENOGNOTHUS OBSCURUS. This jaw, which is in a fair state of preservation, is the second fossil remain of this creature to be found. The first was discovered by Dr. Case in 1921, near Crosbyton, Texas. Dr. Case labels Mr. Strain's fossil as "one of the strangest that has come from the upper-Triassic bed of North America. Dr. Case, who is a noted American paleontologist and geologist, named the animal XENORGNOTHIS OBSCURUS, which means obscure jaw, when he discovered the first fossil remains in 1921 and decided that it was a fish. The larger and more complete speciman discovered by Mr. Strain in the Palo Duro Canyon seems to bear Dr. Case out in his conjecture.

The fossil is now in the Museum of Michigan. Mr. Strain donated it to the Museum because he "felt it would be of more value there, to the scientific world, than in my own collection."

Mr. Strain's discovery is to be acknowledged publicly in a new publication of Dr. Case's which is now in press.

Mr. Strain discovered the jaw in three fragments buried in the gravel of Palo Duro Canyon. He found only one fragment at first, which he gave no thought until, some time later when he was attempting to classify the results of the expedition. He could find no literature upon such a fossil and, sure that he had made a significant find, he returned and discovered the remaining two fragments. After failing to identify it he turned to Dr. Case who made the identification.

Mr. Strain is a senior in the college, majoring in Chemistry, and will receive his degree in August. Geology is a hobby with him, but he plans to carry his work on in some institution of recognized authority.

Stating that the Panhandle of Texas, and the Palo Duro in particular, is rich beyond belief in pre-historic animal remains, he expressed the hope that he might be someday able to contribute to the unraveling of geological mystery in this section.

Green Speaks To Open Forum In Amarillo

Mrs. Geraldine Green spoke to the Open Forum, an organization of Amarillo business and professional women who are making a study of the political trends of the time, Monday afternoon in Amarillo.

Mrs. Green told her audience that the country is in the midst of the most unscruplous "invisible government" known—the racketeers. She deplored the fact that the Jeffersonian democracy did not make adequate provision for such municipalities as exist in New York, Chicago, San Francisco and many other cities of equal importance.

Lyceum Committee Announce Programs For Summer Term

According to Wallace R. Clark, chairman of the Lyceum committee, five programs are to be given during the summer session, the first of which has previously been presented.

The second, the Milwaukee Teachers College Chorus of Milwaukee, Wis., will be given in the Auditorium, Thursday, June 30. Following there will be on July 7, V. L. Granville in his costumed recital, "Dramatic Interludes." Mr. Granville will be filling a return engagement, having appeared here two summers ago at which time he received rich applause. On July 20, Don Blanding, vagabond author and adventurer, will be presented in an imaginative lecture and recital of his many interesting journeys.

Concluding the schedule August 17, The Bergmann Players will appear presenting New York stage hits with a highly talented company of stage artists. This company comes especially praised and should prove one of the most popular lyceum numbers to appear here in years.

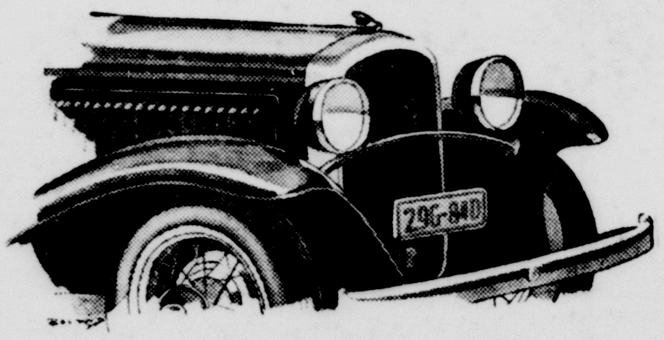
Mr. Treadwell was Hot ....



but His Motor Wasn't!

CONTINENTAL OIL COMPANY.
Gentlemen:

"During my recent vacation I had occasion to give Germ Processed Oil a real test, driving some 1,600 miles, temperature from 105 degrees to 111 degrees. The car never previously stayed as cool, and drove nicer, and I attribute it to no other cause than the use of Germ Processed Oil. Yours truly,

"T. P. TREADWELL."☆

Although Mr. Treadwell is Chief of the Fire Department at Fort Collins, Colorado, he must have been pretty hot in weather like that!

But in spite of 105 to 111-degree weather, his motor didn't heat up! Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil withstands heat better because Conoco's exclusive, patented Germ Process gives it extra "oiliness" other oils don't have. That extra oiliness reduces motor operating temperatures. It guards against thinning out caused by heat and crankcase dilution. It gives Germ Processed Oil more stability.

And, no matter how hot the weather, the Hidden Quart stays up in your motor and never drains away. It's always on duty when you start, cutting down costly wear during the starting period, when almost half of all motor wear occurs.

For Summer, for Winter, any time—Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil is a better oil for your car. Change now at any Conoco Red Triangle station.

Wayside Items

Glad to be able to report we have had abundant rains, without hail in and near Wayside, up to date.

Harvest began 15th in these parts. Rain has interfered with the harvest but a great blessing in other ways. Gardens, row crops and pastures were in great need of moisture, doing well since the rains.

Supposed muddy roads prevented Rev. J. R. Plant filling his appointments Sunday. Our S. S. fairly well attended considering muddy conditions.

Fannie May Franklin spent last week with her cousin, Ida B. Graham in Happy. She had a very pleasant visit.

Miss Lora Belle Moore is visiting a few days with Miss Aline McGehee this week.

The play from Happy, "The Ghost House" put on at Wayside Monday night was fairly well attended. A goodly number from Happy came out, said to be very good.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Spanns living in Dallas visited them the past week. He is a hatter by trade.

Bill Wesley, Fairview, got his hand badly bruised some days ago. Blood poison developed may possibly lose his hand, is in Sanitarium at Tulia. His mother, Mrs. Maud Wesley is with him.

Wilson Items

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Buchannan Jr. and family of Fort Worth spent the week in the J. L. Buchannan home.

Joe Frank and Anton Hollenstein spent Sunday afternoon on the south creek.

Mrs. G. Frank was a caller in the Mrs. L. Brandt home Sunday.

Mr. G. Weigard was a business caller in Canyon Monday.

Mr. Milton Guest, of Happy, spent Tuesday in the W. H. Neal home.

Miss Anna and Ruth Frank visited with Mrs. G. Frank Jr. Sunday.

Mrs. Mincey of Canyon is a visitor of her daughter Mrs. L. H. Hollman.

Mr. Otto Skarkey was fortunate in killing the wolf that has been catching his chickens.

Visitors in the Mrs. Joe Frank home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Leseberg and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beckman.

Mrs. Buster Henson of Hereford is spending the week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Neal.

Mrs. J. L. Brandt and daughter Ida, visited Mrs. G. Frank Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Stewart and Miss Maud Stewart, of Amarillo visited in the E. Stewart home Sunday.

Mr. G. Frank spent Sunday in the Vonard home.

Mrs. Joe Tuck and family visited in the Beckman home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Stewart visited in the E. Stewart home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Buchannan visited in the J. L. Brandt home Saturday.

Sunny Hill News

Most farmers in this community are ready to start harvesting as soon as the ground is dry enough to put the machines in the fields. We have had lots of rain and would like to have two or three weeks of dry weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Roby visited friends in this community Sunday and attended B. Y. P. U. Sunday night. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bonds of Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cone of Panhandle are down to harvest their wheat. They are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirven Irwin visited relatives at Whittenburg and Clarendon last Week.

Club which was supposed to meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Ratjen with Miss Carrinne Hollobough as hostess was postponed because of the muddy roads.

Forrester Hollabough spent the week-end with Bill Golden in the Wayside community.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dansby and Pat Sherwood of Valley Mills have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Amos Ratjen. Mr and Mrs. Dansby left for home Monday morning, while Mr. Sherwood will be here for the harvest season.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Hollabough and family spent Sunday in the Otto Lehnick home.

Umbarger Items

A number of friends and relatives attended a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Friemel in celebration of Ted Friemel's birthday. They served lunch and all reported a good time.

A large crowd was present at the wedding dance which was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Broman who were recently married.

Heavy rains have fallen in the vicinity of Umbarger for the past week.

Wm. Wilford Taylor and Mr. Joe Friemel made a business trip to New Mexico last wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shanerbaugen and family and Mr. Albert Fishbacher visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hollenstein Sunday afternoon.

Alfred and Victor Friemel visited at the home of Elmer and Alious Friemel Sunday.

Mrs. G. Wilmouth, son and little daughter and Mrs. Grounds and little daughter visited at the home of Miss Mary Grooms Tuesday of last week.

Zita Breezes

We have had much rain, with some hail that has damaged the wheat some. Row crops being worked and in a few days harvest will begin.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McMahan and small son, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stewart visited Mrs. Emma Gruner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fulton and son were in Amarillo Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Owen and children visited in Amarillo Sunday.

We are glad to report that H. P. Fulton Jr. is rapidly improving over a minor operation last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Upchurch and daughter spent Wednesday evening at the C. C. Stewart home.

You don't buy a paper—you buy news.

You don't buy circus tickets—you buy thrills.

You don't buy life insurance—you buy education for the children, cancellation of the mortgage and an income for the wife.

You don't buy a membership in the chamber of commerce—you buy co-operation of the most able business men of the town.

Big business men, men of national and international influence are strong believers in the importance of the functions of a chamber of commerce and the invaluable service which it renders to business and the community as a whole. We hear these men of prominence continually testifying by deed and word to the value of organized community co-operation.

Your membership in the chamber of commerce buys vital, active co-operative force which is making a better city in which to live and do business. It buys the co-operative efforts of your fellow citizens to do the things for your interest which you cannot do alone.—Ernest C. Gould in Nation's Business.

CASTE IN HOLLYWOOD

The boys who drive for the motion-picture studios resent being called chauffers. They want to be called drivers. Most of the actors call their drivers by name and chat with them. Recently a woman star, to whom a special car and driver were assigned, let a week go by without bothering to learn his name, and always addressed him as "Chauffeur." He thought that was long enough, so he swung around in his seat, grinning yet determined.

"Miss," he said, "I'm no chauffeur. I'm a driver."

"Why," she asked, "What's the difference?"

The answer was instantaneous and positive: "One hundred dollars a month and no dogs to wash!"—Los Angeles Times.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

BY PHILIP MARTIN

BECAUSE a racing crew is intercollegiate champion at Poughkeepsie in an Olympic year, it doesn't necessarily follow that this same crew will be the United States entry in the Olympic boat races. But when the crew champion happens to be California and the year is divisible by four, watch out for the Golden Bears in the international contests.

Records show that the westerners have a habit of taking intercollegiate and world championships in quick succession. Of course it isn't very deeply established, for they've done it only once. But by the manner in which they've gone about the 1932 campaign, it appears the habit will carry them through again

• • •

MORE than six months ago, Rowing Coach Carroll M. (Ky) Ebright issued the challenge, "California's crew in California's Olympics." A hundred or more young giants who answered his call for rowing candidates took up the defy

By April, there were three boatfuls ready to take the water in competition. University of Washington was there to test them. They met, and at the end of three miles California's varsity shell was a battleship length in front of the Huskies. The margin of victory was variously estimated at from 10 to 18 racing shell lengths. Anyway, it was a sizable margin.

That was April, the intercollegiate championship was scheduled for late June, the Olympic trials were ordered for early July Coach Ebright told his young oarsmen to break training, to do anything they wanted to for a few weeks. After a vacation, he called them back.

In boathouse, rowing tank, locker room and shower bath they were confronted with "California's crew in California's Olympics." Coach Ebright had ordered Olympic rowing jerseys displayed prominently about the crew quarters. Below each of the shirts were the printed words, "Would you like to wear this?"

AND thus California, 1932 intercollegiate rowing champion, is installed favorite to win the United States Olympic appointment—and maybe the world championship. The Golden Bears were "brought up" from the start to believe no other crew had any right in the Olympics. They were convinced from previous records that a California crew in Olympic years is supposed to win intercollegiate and Olympic titles. The goal is half theirs, they will win the rest of it, if it is humanly possible.

The Olympic trials on Lake Quinsigamond at Worcester, Mass., will be different than the Poughkeepsie event. Yale will change the complexion somewhat. So will a boatload of Columbia alumni, and other shells made up of alumni and freshmen oarsmen.

It is asking a lot of a crew to win the college championship at four miles and then, in two weeks time, to set its stroke up to a sprint beat for the Olympic trials of 2000 meters. The Olympic distance is less than a mile and a half, made to order for a sprint crew. Few sprint crews have the stamina for four miles, and few with the strength to go the longer route have the speed to win at 2000 meters.

California did it in 1928. The Golden Bears not only took the title at Poughkeepsie's four-mile course, but shortened their pull and increased their beat to capture the sprint title in the Olympic trials. Then after a 3000-mile ocean trip, they swept over the opposition at Amsterdam.

U. S. Stars Who Shone Abroad

Only Jap Male Opera Star

Although there have been many Japanese sopranos in grand opera, it remained for Yoshiye Fujiwara, above, to be the first of his race to achieve widespread fame in an operatic tenor role. Fujiwara, who studied under European masters for years, and has sung solo roles in the famed La Scala in Milan, has left San Francisco for Japan to complete a series of concerts.

Official Tester of County Resigns From His Post

C. B. Ray, who for the past year has held the position as official tester for the Randall County Herd Improvement Association, resigned that position effective this week. Mr. Ray left Tuesday for College Station where he has accepted a position with the A. L. Darnall Dairy Farm. Prof. Darnell is state superintendent of testing and a professor of Dairy Husbandry in A. & M. College.

Mr. Ray's successor has not been named, although it is expected that a recognized tester will be appointed to the place by the state superintendent in order to begin work early in July.

Mr. Ray was a graduate of A. & M. College majoring in Dairy Husbandry. His work as a tester for the local association attracted such attention as to warrant the offer of the new position from his former instructor.

Old Timers at T-Anchor Saturday For a Reunion

A small group of old-time residents of the Panhandle gathered at the T-Anchor Ranch house last Saturday to celebrate with Judge L. Gough and Jim Wright, one-time cowpunchers for the T-Anchor outfit, their 50th anniversary of their arrival at the old ranch headquarters and employment on the ranch.

Judge Gough and Mr. Wright drove a herd of cattle from the Grayson county ranch of Gunter, Munson and Gunter, to the T-Anchor, then owned by the same men. The two, with Mr. Wright in charge of the herd arrived at the T-Anchor headquarters on June 26, 1882.

A feature of Saturday's gathering was the dinner served in the old ranch house and a revival of old "yarns" by those present.

A large part of the afternoon was spent in recalling to memory many of the incidents and happenings of years gone by and the people involved in them. Those attending included, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Jenkins, Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. John Arnott, Amarillo; Judge and Mrs. L. Gough, Amarillo; Miss Laura Hamner, Amarillo; Ed Baird, Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wright, Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor, Amarillo.

The group gathered at the old ranch headquarters about 10 o'clock Saturday morning and visited until about 4 o'clock that afternoon. They all expressed themselves as planning to return to the ranch for the annual roundup of the old cowboys when the reunion is held in August.

HOG PRICE INCREASES.

The best news that the farmer has had this week was the increase in the price of hogs. The price nearly doubled over the prevailing price of a few weeks ago. S. M. Downing, local buyer, states that he is shipping all the hogs he can, as he is afraid that the increase is only of a temporary nature.

Anyone wishing to enter the contest may get in touch with the County Agent or the Chamber of Commerce secretary and arrangements will be made to enter them in the contest at Amarillo Monday.

A TRAGIC ENIGMA

Almost half the world vitally needs articles of which we have a surplus. We have wheat to burn when people are starving; a surfeit of cotton when people lack clothes. This tragic enigma is largely due to the fact that the collapse of silver has robbed millions of people of their purchasing power.

A practical plan to restore silver's value would be a move toward a return to world stabilization and prosperity.

F. E. Smith of Tulia spent the week end with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther A. Murphy are visiting his parents at Murphysboro, Arkansas.

Miss Gladys Beavers spent the week end with relatives at Hereford.

Earl Sanders returned this week from a fishing trip into New Mexico. He also visited his sister, Mrs. Wilbourn Young of Santa Rosa, N. M., while away.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Presley and daughters, Miss Pauline, and Mrs. Donald Trolinger, are visiting another daughter, Mrs. H. D. Cline at Mount Pleasant, Iowa.

Further oddity of the American police technique: As soon as the investigation extends eight miles into the suberbs it becomes a nation-wide search.

The Babe and The Marechal

The story goes that Babe Ruth once met General Foch, but I don't know whether he tells people about it often.

It happened some years ago when he was playing in vaudeville in Baltimore. The manager revealed that the General was in a box and was going to pay a visit backstage after the performance.

Ruth was troubled.

"I've never met any of these big birds," he told Wellington Cross his partner.

"What am I going to say to him?"

"Just shake hands with him and talk about anything you happen to think of," he was advised.

So the Babe, imprest by Foch's fine uniform and military bearing, greeted him respectfully.

"Was you," asked Babe, by way of making light conversation, "in the war?"—New York Morning Telegraph.

SWITCHING THE SLOGAN

"Can you beat it?"

"What now?"

"They sold me this stuff on the 'pay-as-you-can' plan, and now they insist I pay when I can't."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Classified rates are two cents per word for the first insertion, and one cent per word for each subsequent insertion. This rate applies to all legal notices.

All classified advertisements must be paid in advance unless arrangements are made in person to care for the payment of them. Classified ads received through the mail will not be published unless accompanied by the cost of insertion.

Word ads intelligently—do not try to save a few cents by leaving out necessary words; tell who, what, where, and, if essential, when and why.
